It is highly recommended to wait for all the results to appear before taking any decisions or going forward with the acquisition of the horse.

The buyer is taking all the costs of the pre-purchase appointment and is engaged to pay.

Bank transfer is the easiest payment methods (must be made 5 days before the appointment!), or at the latest, paid by credit card or in cash on the day of examination.

The clinic will do a refund if any closure is finally not executed.
If the buyer wants any additional examinations, the payment must be made on the same day.
